Rashi Really Is Your Friend! with Benay

So who was this Rashi guy, and how can we use his insights to support our learning? We'll spend time exploring Rashi's history and "project," reviewing the letters of Rashi script, and studying a bit of Rashi's commentary on our sugya (talmudic passage) to get acquainted with how Rashi's mind works. This is a great workshop for new learners who want to develop an essential Talmud skill as well as more experienced learners who've been yearning to know more about this 11th century commentator who we like to refer to as the original bet midrash fairy!

The Bois in the Back with Laynie

We all know that Rashi is our friend, but what about all those other bois in the back of the Talmud and beyond? We'll get cozy with a few Rishonim (medieval commentators) and get to know their unique perspectives on our sugya.

Conjugation for Liberation with Amir

Ok, so there are 8 things to know about a sentence and 15 things to know about a word before you own it, right? What if you can only figure out 5 of those things?! This workshop is here to help you reach new heights in your ownership of the elegant structure of the Hebrew language. Come to Conjugation for Liberation to get yourself a dose of Hebrew grammar goodness to take your ownership of any sugya to the next level. We'll focus on understanding binyanim, tense, and person/number/gender of Hebrew verbs.
